Antonio Ambrosetti Medal

The Antonio Ambrosetti Medal in memory of Antonio Ambrosetti, Professor at SISSA from 1980 to 1983, at Scuola Normale Superiore from 1986 to 1998 and again in SISSA in the years 1998-2012, is awarded by SISSA, with the support of the Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa, the “Unione Matematica Italiana” (UMI) and the “Accademia Nazionale dei Lincei”.

The award recognizes exceptionally promising young researchers who have already made outstanding contributions to the fields of nonlinear analysis.

Requirements

The recipient, with no restriction on the nationality, must have defended her/his Ph.D thesis in the calendar year of the award or in the preceding 12 years. The eligibility period is extended in case of maternity (2 year extension for each child born before the nomination deadline).

Nomination procedure and deadline

Nomination can be submitted by researchers active in the fields of the award. Self-nominations and nominations by the Ph.D. advisors are not accepted.

Nominations must be sent to ambrosetti_medal@sissa.it no later than 30.08.2021

The nomination should contain an overview of the candidate results (maximum 2 A4 pages). Furthermore the nomination should contain:

1. The candidate name and institution
2. The year of the candidate Ph.D
3. The nominator name, institution and e-mail address (to confirm receipt of the nomination)
4. Professional relation between the nominator and the candidate
5. The list of papers on which the nomination is based
6. A short CV of the candidate

Results

The results of the selection will be notified to the sponsor and to the candidate by late 30/09/2021.

The recipient will be awarded a medal and an allowance for travel and accommodation to the award ceremony that will be held in SISSA in November-December 2021
